City Palace: City Palace, Jaipur, which includes the Chandra Mahal and Mubarak Mahal palaces and other buildings, is a palace complex in Jaipur, the capital of the Rajasthan state, India. The Chandra Mahal palace now houses a museum but the greatest part of it is still a royal residence. The palace complex, located northeast of the centre of the grid-patterned Jaipur city, incorporates an impressive and vast array of courtyards, gardens and buildings. The palace was built between 1729 and 1732, initially by Sawai Jai Singh II, the ruler of Amber.

Jantar Mantar: The Jantar Mantar monument of Jaipur, Rajasthan is a collection of nineteen architectural astronomical instruments, built by the Rajput king Sawai Jai Singh, and completed in 1738 CE. It features the world's largest stone sundial, and is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

17 Mar: Jaipur

After Breakfast Elephant Ride upto Amber Fort & Photo Stop at Hawa Mahal. Afternoon excursion to the fort of Bhangarh is amusingly said to be haunted, as it is surrounded by Jungle. It's a ruined fort situated on some height. There is a large open space / garden which attracts kids but to see the fort closely, you will have to do some steep climbing. The view from top is very good. On entrance, you will see the old used to be shops of the inhabitants along with few temples including Hanuman temple at the entrance. The road to this place is pathetic. People say, they hear different voices in night. Bahangarh is a must visit place. Later drive back to Jaipur. Overnight at Hotel.
Pm visit Local Market. Overnight at Hotel. (B)

Amber Fort: Amer Fort is located in Amer, a town with an area of 4 square kilometers located 11 kilometres from Jaipur. Rajasthan state, India. Located high on a hill, it is the principal tourist attraction in the Jaipur area. The town of Amer was originally built by Meenas and later it was ruled by Raja Man Singh I. Amer Fort is known for its artistic Hindu style elements. With its large ramparts and series of gates and cobbled paths, the fort overlooks Maota Lake. It is the main source of water for the Amer palace.

Hawa Mahal: Hawa Mahal (Palace of Winds or Palace of the Breeze) is a palace in Jaipur, India, so named because it was essentially a high screen wall built so the women of the royal household could observe street festivals while unseen from the outside. Constructed of red and pink sandstone, the palace sits on the edge of the City Palace, and extends to the zenana, or women's chambers.

Taj Mahal: The Taj Mahal is an ivory-white marble mausoleum on the south bank of the Yamuna river in the Indian city of Agra. It was commissioned in 1632 by the Mughal emperor, Shah Jahan (reigned 1628–1658), to house the tomb of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal. The tomb is the centrepiece of a 42-acre complex, which includes a mosque and a guest house, and is set in formal gardens bounded on three sides by a crenellated wall.

Agra Fort: The Agra Fort is a UNESCO World Heritage site located in Agra, Uttar Pradesh, India. It is about 2.5 km northwest of its more famous sister monument, the Taj Mahal. The fort can be more accurately described as a walled city. The present-day structure was built by the Mughals, though a fort had stood there since at least the 11th century. Agra Fort was originally a brick fort known as Badalgarh, held by Raja Badal Singh Hindu Sikarwar Rajput king (c. 1475). It was mentioned for the first time in 1080 AD when a Ghaznavide force captured it. Sikandar Lodi (1488–1517) was the first Sultan of Delhi who shifted to Agra and lived in the fort.

VISA: INDIA - Visa required. Passengers who enter India only once require a single entry visa. India has recently introduced an online visa application process which will make it easier for passengers who need a single entry visa. Passengers may complete their application online for a $60 fee at <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in/visa/tvoa.html>.

This applies to SINGLE ENTRY passengers only. This is a 2-STEP PROCESS:

- 1) Travelers complete an online form, upload a scanned passport photo and a scanned image of the passport information page, and receive initial approval in advance of travel.
- 2) Upon arrival in India the traveler must wait in line at the airport visa on arrival facility to secure the visa. Passengers, who enter India, continue to Nepal, and then re-enter India will require a double entry visa for India. To obtain a double entry visa, passengers may visit <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in/visa/>. Passengers traveling to India will need to provide a reference, including name, address, and phone number, for their Indian visa. Two days following your initial booking and deposit, you will receive complete information via email about obtaining a visa to India. Visa applications should be submitted as early as possible as visa processing may require as long as 30 days.
