Day
1

Welcome to China! Fly to Harbin from Beijing directly.

Sun, 4 Feb

Flight Beijing - Harbin (e-tickets)

Transfer from Harbin airport to hotel with English-speaking guide: Harbin has a temperate monsoon climate with four distinct seasons, but claims to be best in summer and winter, especially winter. So you are lucky to be here in season. As the capital, it is a heart cross point of politics, finance and culture; a picturesque city with beautiful Songhua River going through it. Known as "Oriental Moscow" or "Oriental Paris".

With 190-day freezing season and its bitterly cold winters, the northeastern city of Harbin is known as a "City of Ice". But the bitter cold never cools the local people's enthusiasm for enjoying the winter scenery and all kinds of winter activities. Harbin is best known for its appealing winter landscape, stimulating winter sports and various dazzling ice and snow art works, such as ice lanterns, snow sculptures and ice carvings.

Want to know more about Harbin? Come to experience on your own please.

Ice and Snow Festival

Mon, 5 Feb

Harbin International Ice and Snow Festival (full-day excursion): General Itinerary: at morning, visiting the National Museum, and then go to watch ice activities (some shows on icy lakes); after lunch, go to visit Taiyang Island Snow and Ice Sculptures; at night, go to visit the Ice and Snow World, and then to see Ice Lanterns if time permits;

Harbin International Ice and Snow Festival is held annually from January 5 to February 5. But the Ice and Snow World always open from Christmas Eve. Boasting the world's largest man-made ice and snow buildings, the exhibition is built on the northern bank of the Songhua River and covers an area of more than 300,000 square meters. A total of 80,000 cubic meters of ice and 120,000 cubic meters of snow are used in the park. Ice lanterns are not necessarily "lantern-like." In a broad sense, they refer to any work of art made of ice and light, including buildings, carvings, slides, waterfalls.

In the Ice and Snow World, you will watch and enjoy the tallest, most beautiful, grandest and most charming ice and snow spectacles. You will experience curious ice and snow activities, such as seeking for the treasure in the maze, climbing the ice rocks, snow golf and snow football. You will also have fun with about 30 cultures and integrate yourself with the charming and grand scene of the decorative night laps and you will feel that you are traveling in the paradise on earth.

Tours ends with a transfer back to your hotel for rest;

Beijing city tour

Fri, 16 Feb

Beijing City Tour (Tiananmen Square + Forbidden City + Lama Temple):

(New Year Day: Beijing locals will go to burn incense for blessing and good luck of the coming year in Lama Temple, especially aged people who deeply believe in the tradition; And some people will go to visit relatives or families;) Begin the day with a pickup from your hotel at 08:00am by your driver and guide. Firstly, you will go to visit the Tian'anmen Square and nextly go to visit the Forbidden City. After lunch, your guide will take you to visit Lama Temple; Tour ends with a transfer back to hotel for rest;

The Tiananmen is a famous monument in Beijing. It is widely used as a national symbol. First built during the Ming Dynasty in 1420, Tiananmen is the entrance to the Imperial City, within which the Forbidden City is located.

The Forbidden City, used to be the imperial palace of the Ming and Qing dynasties. It was declared a World Heritage Site in 1987 as the "Imperial Palace of the Ming and Qing Dynasties". Consisting of 980 surviving buildings with 9999 bays of rooms spreading over 178 acres, the Forbidden City is the world's largest surviving palace complex.

Lama Temple (Yonghe Temple; Yonghe Lamasery) is the largest and best-preserved lamasery in Beijing. It was built in 1694 during the Qing Dynasty (1644-1911) as the residence of the Emperor Yongzheng (the third emperor of the Qing Dynasty) before he ascended the throne. In the year 1744, the residence was completely converted into a lamasery. So this resplendent architectural complex is endowed with the style of an imperial palace, making it distinctive from others.

Ditan Tempel Spring Festival Fairs

Sat, 17 Feb

Beijing Ditan Temple Spring Festival Culture: Ditan Temple Fair is a Chinese tradition to celebrate the Chinese Lunar New Year, or Spring Festival.

There were lots of things happening here, from fair games, lion dance, to comic and dance performances, to random craft stores, to street snacks with huge lines, to cute little chinese new year decor, to people taking selfies, etc. It could be very crowded, especially on the 1st day of the Fair. But the main draw was not the attractions themselves but the crowded and festive atmosphere.

A must do on Chinese new year if you want to experience the real Chinese New Year celebration!
